ABOUT THE CONCLAVE

In today's dynamic business environment, effective corporate governance and the strategic role of independent directors are essential for sustaining organizational success and driving innovation. The National Convention on Corporate Governance and Independent Directors, taking place in Ahmedabad, will indulge into these important aspects, exploring how independent directors can navigate the evolving landscape of corporate governance.

This convention aims to provide a detailed understanding of the recent era of governance challenges and opportunities. Attendees will gain valuable insights into the latest trends and regulatory developments, risk management strategies, and the integration of ESG (Environmental, Social, and Governance) considerations into governance practices. Key topics will include the future of corporate governance, succession planning, and board renewal.

Join us in Ahmedabad for an enriching experience that promises to equip independent directors and board members with essential tools and insights.
